Glenn Clark has been a top coach and competitor for more than 25 years and is certified in all four styles of dance. He has been ranked consistently as one of the top pro-am instructors in the United States - competing in all four styles. Glenn competes nationally with his students, winning many top awards and championships. He enjoys working with all levels and ages of dancers as well as with singles, couples and groups. Glenn spent his childhood living in Mexico, Venezuela, Chile and Argentina, where he learned to speak fluent Spanish and appreciate Latin music and dancing. Glenn is the chair of judges for the Michigan Senior Olympics' DanceSport competition held semi-annually in February and August. He teaches in several convenient locations across the entire metro Detroit area and is available for ballroom coaching, wedding dance choreography, and dance instruction seven days a week. She is also a World Dance Council adjudicator. She has served on the judges' panel of such prestigious competitions as the WDC Amateur League World Championship in Paris, France, and the WDC Amateur League "Freedom Dance Cup" in Radom, Poland. She fell in love with dancing at age 7, and is a longtime ballroom teacher, competitor and choreographer. A native of Poland, she represented that country with her former partner in competitions in Europe, Asia and the United States. They were finalists in Standard and 10-dance Polish Championships, and won almost every U.S. Professional

Rising Star title. Izabela has been a dance studio co-owner, a designer of women's dance fashions, and independent instructor in the Ann Arbor, Michigan, area. She has been rewarded with a large number of students in the region and is devoted to helping each dancer achieve his or her goals. Her teaching style focuses on technique and its nuances. She also recognizes how important it is for students to learn and understand body mechanics.
